

TTJ TIMBER MERCHANT DEVELOPMENT AWARD 2023

Sponsored by (in association)

TTJ's Timber Merchanting Development Award is open to timber and builders' merchants which have undertaken initiatives to develop and improve the timber side of their businesses from January 2022 to June 2023. This may involve a range of actions covering, for example (but not limited to), improving the timber product range, delivery service, site and infrastructure investment (buildings, handling equipment, storage showrooms/shop), investment in management/ordering software and initiatives to educate the end-user in correct timber specification.

Entries will be judged on performance criteria including strategy, delivery of initiatives & how improvements have benefitted the business.

Name of entrant:

Address:

Contact name:

Tel:

E-mail:

Please fill out the contact details section on this form and return with your entry, which should include:

- A clear synopsis of the aims and execution of the development plants
- Photos and other evidence of relevant improvements made
- An analysis of the positive effect on business. This can comprise detailed statistical and other supporting information, including if relevant customer testimony

Please include a minimum of two images to support the submission, and no more than five and please label them: "TTJ Timber Merchanting Development Award – Company name".

Please send the completed entry form and supporting documents and images to:

awards@ttjonline.com Deadline – Friday 30th June 2023.

The TTJ Awards are judged by independent panels.